

has shown greater activity in the mat- Paul and Decker. ter of social life than the city has seen nce the early spring. Luncheons, ture, they have been thoroughly en-

The coming week brings still more

Coming Events.

The important event of the week will be the marriage, which takes place Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock, of Miss Lena Preston and Mr. C. B. Diehl. The ceremony will be performed in St. Mark's cathedral by the Rev. C. E. Per-kins of St. Paul's church. The bride will be attended by Miss Dern as brides-

The marriage of Miss Minerva May Margetts and Mr. Harry Ostler will take place Wednesday, Oct. I, in the temple, and will be followed by a reception in the evening from 8 till II o'clock. The reception will be at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Richards, 159 Second Street.

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Young, daughter of Major and Mrs. Richard W. Young, and Mr. Lucien Ray will take place Thursday, Oct. 2. The event is one to which the many friends of the young people are looking forward with interest. forward with interest

One of the large events of the coming week will be the reception Tuesday afternoon given by Mrs. Leslie Woodruff Snow at her new home, 60

Mrs. William Igleheart will receive at four informal afternoon affairs on Tuesday. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the coming week.

Mrs. E. A. Wall has invitations out for a sixty-three party Thursday aft-ernoon, and for a euchre party Friday

Mrs. Terry and Mrs. Akers have invi-function to be given next Thursday at the Alta club. Mrs. L. C. Miller has issued invita-ions for two old-fashioned teas in ionor of her mother, Mrs. Viele and her aunt, Miss Williams. The first will be Thursday afternoon and the second first being that of Miss Vera Cannon and Mr. Heber C. Shary, which took place last Tuesday morning in the temple. Later a large reception was tendered the young people at the home of the bride's mother, and they left that night for their new home in Rexburg, Ida.

The affair were Mrs. Calhoun, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. Witcher Jones, Mrs. Holman, Mrs. J. D. Thompson, Mrs. McCornick, Mrs. Miner, Mrs. E. Dinner.

Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Knight enterburg, Ida.

Another wedding which was followed a pleasant home reception was that Miss Belle Weller and Mr. Ernest Lambourne. The reception took place brides sister. Mrs. Heber S. Cutler, and was attended by only the relatives and intimate friends of the bride and strong the strong sister. The strong sister were and many strong sister. The strong sister were laid for ten.

The atternation were all or a deep red, and the place eards were pictures of Miss Preston early swere laid for ten.

The atternation were all or a deep red, and the place eards were pictures of Miss Preston early sister and the place eards were pictures of Miss Preston.

The attentation and the place eards were pictures of Miss Preston early sister and the place early sister and

R. J. Evans. A very prettily arranged with the support of the supp od Springs.

The marriage of Miss Jeanette E. Moore and Mr. John Woodbridge took place Wednesday evening in Murray, and a wedding supper to the intimate friends followed the ceremony. Later Mr. and Mrs. Woodbridge left for a short wedding journey. They will make their home in Salt Lake. short wedding journey. Their home in Sait Lake Musical Tea.

Mrs. Arthur Brown was the hostess a very beautiful and elegantly appointed musical tea on Tuesday after noon. The affair was planned in hon-or of Miss Maud Reese Davies, the singer, who is in the city visiting Mrs. J. A. Johnson gave a mos Perkins. The handsome home was joyable luncheon followed by a stery prettily decorated, masses of astronom. roses and dahlias filling every corner. About 100 guests were present, and an afternoon of music of the most enjoyable kind resulted. Miss Davies, accompanied by Mrs. Agnes Osborne, sang a number of beautiful selections. Mrs. Brown was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. D. C. McLaugh-lin, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Rachel Miller. Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Rachel Miller. Mrs. J. L. Rawlins, Mrs. David Evans, Mrs. George A. Snow, Mrs. Ezra Thompson, Mrs. M. Shaughnessy, Miss Marjorie Miller and Miss Alta Raw-

Luncheon and Card Party.

Mrs. Ezra Thompson entertained at a delightful luncheon on Friday, followed by an afternoon card party. Her guests were sealed at ten small tables guests were sealed at ten small tables arranged in the two parlors and the library. In the parlors and hall asters were the flowers used in the decorations, and the rich colored dahlias were laid for fourteen. seen in the library. In the games which followed the luncheon, prizes the table decorations being especially effective. Besides the guest of honor there were present, Mesdames Arthur Brown, David Woods, Greenwald, J. Bamberger, Oberndorfer, David Keith, Samuel Paul, Kimball, Hanchett, Dal-HE calm which has prevailed so by, Schramm, Dart, S. B. King, Henry long in society circles has at last been broken, and the past week Messerschmitt and Misses Kimball, since the early spring. Luncheons, inners, teas and other events have honor at a charmingly appointed luncheon given by Miss Claudia Morrapidity, and although many of the affairs have been informal in their nature, they have been thoroughly endecorations, and a very beautiful effect decorations, and a very beautiful effect was the result. Dainty pen and ink sketches of brides and cupids were used as place cards. The guests were nearly all the young girl friends of the is visiting friends in the city. The coming week brings still more in a social way, several large and some less formal receptions being planned. A few of the weddings of the autumn will take place during the week, and a number of events in honor of the prospective brides and grooms are to be given.

A Dainty Luncheon.

Here are a splace cards. The guests were nearly all the young girl friends of the bride, those present being Mrs. Samuel C. Adams of Denver, Mrs. Pinkerton, Mrs. W. H. Cunningham, Miss Mamie Porter, Miss Bersbach of Chicago, Miss Dern, Miss McMillan and Miss Rosalie Morris.

Kensington Tea.

Mrs. George A. Lowe and Miss Katherine Lowe entertained at a Kensing-ton tea Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Lowe of DeWitt, Ia., who is their guest. After a short time spent over the thimbles, a letter writing con-test was engaged in, and later prizes be attended by Miss Dern as brides-maid, and Mr. George Ripley will be the best man. Later the young people will leave for a trip to the coast, but will make their home in Salt Lake. the friends of Miss Lowe were present consisting of a harp solo by Mr. Howard, violin solos by Mr. Skelton, and some vocal numbers by Miss Conoway of York, Neb. and Miss Physics of Mrs. Allen

Miss Florence Dow entertained at a very prettily planned lawn party Fri-day afternoon, at which about thirty of her friends were present. Tables for ping pong were arranged on the lawn, and the first prize was won by Miss Laura Bird, the other guests receiving handsome souvenirs of the game in burnt wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Officer and children have returned from a delightful outing in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor M. Clement entertained at a very delightful dinner Monday evening, followed by a theatre monday creating the event was in honor of party. The event was in honor of Mr. Bordman of San Francisco, and covers were laid for seven. The guests were seated at a round table, and the centerplece was formed of pink carnations. Two handsome candelabra at nations. Two handsome candelabra at nations. Two handsome candelabra at nations. Judge, Miss Burke and Captain Winn,

At Breakfast.

Miss Woodward was the hostess at a charmingly arranged breakfast at the Country club last Wednesday, given in honor of Mrs. Calhoun of Bridgeport. The table was spread in the regular dining room, and the decoration of the country club last Wednesday, given in honor of Mrs. Calhoun of Bridgeport. The table was spread in the regular dining room, and the decoration was spread in the regular dining room, and the decoration of the country of the country club last Wednesday, given in honor of Mrs. Calhoun of Bridgeport. number of pretty home weddings tions were very artistic. The guests of the affair were Mrs. Calhoun, Mrs. being that of Miss Vera Cannon Mr. Heber C. Sharp, which took last Thesday marning in the

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Knight entertained a small party at dinner Friday evening in honor of Miss Lena Preston and Mr. C. B. Diehl. The table decorations were all of a deep red, and the place cards were pictures of Miss Preston etched in brown of Miss Preston City. 12.

Mr. Bordman of San Francisco was street. The marriage of Miss Florence La

Due and Mr. Hugh Ward was solemized Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock

It the home of the bride's sister, Mrs.

His guests were Dr. and Mrs. Hepburn,

Mrs. Victor M. Clement, Miss Bubb,

Victor M. Clement, Miss Bubb,

Victor M. Clement, Miss Bubb,

Mrs. J. A. Johnson gave a most enjoyable luncheon followed by a sixty-

Miss Dern was the hostess at a very pleasant Kensington given in honor of Miss Lena Preston Thursday after-

Mrs. Percival O. Perkins and Miss Dickert gave a pleasant musical last evening in honor of Miss Maud Reese Davies.

Dr. and Mrs. Ewing entertained a party of fourteen guests at the buffet supper at the Country club Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Eva Grow and Mess Grace Grow

Mrs. G. P. Holman gave an informal

Coming and Going.

Mrs. J. E. Galigher is at home at 518

Mr. Salisbury Gilmer is in the city

Mr. Paul Tafel of Cincinnati is visit Miss Hazel Crow of Chicago is the

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parsons are home from a trip to the northwest.

Mr. Joseph Mason Howard leaves to-morrow for his home in Denver. Mr. and Mrs. Ned Kessler have gone to Colorado for a two weeks' visit nome from a short trip to Detroit.

Mrs. S. W. Mudd and son of Denvei are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Cleaver.

The Misses Donnellan and Miss June Bintz left early in the week for Wash-Mrs. Russel Coe Woodruff and chil-iren will return during the week from Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Schumacher will home for the winter at the

Mrs. Allen G. Campbell is at the Knutsford and will be in the city for some time.

Miss Florence Terhune arrived Friday morning from a year spent in the Philippines.

Mrs. Jack Alford and Miss Jean Alford are spending some time in Provo visiting friends.

Miss Mary L. Hoag is spending a few days in Ogden visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Hoag. The Misses Mary and Dorothy Kin-either side of the table were shaded in pink, and the place cards were in the same shades. The other guests present were Miss Woodward, Miss they spent the summer.

days in Park City as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Windsor V. Rice.

The Misses Afton and Jasmine Young will leave shortly for New York, where they will spend the winter.

Miss Mamie Miller, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Schiller, left Wednesday for her home.

Judge James A. Miner and Mrs. Ma-bei Miner McClure will return during the week from San Francisco.

Mr. Babcock and daughter, Miss Maud M. Babcock, are in their new home at 273 South Eleventh East

Mrs. Ira H. Lewis and her mother, Mrs. Smith, who have spent the past six weeks on the coast, will be home today.

Mrs. M. E. Williams of New York City is the guest of her niece, Mrs. Lee C. Miller, at 943 East First South The Misses Guitar, who have been visiting the Misses Leonard for the past few weeks, leave this morning for their home.

⊕ ⊕

Mrs. W. Montague Ferry and sons will leave Wednesday for Michigan, has spent the summer with Mr. and Mrs. George Steiner, will leave Thursday for her home.

Mrs. Albert Taylor and little daugh-ter, who have been visiting Mrs. Eg-bert, left yesterday for their home in

Mrs. M. B. Whitney left Thursday morning for Kansas City, where she will spend some time as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Wallick. Miss Isabel Monahan, who has spent the summer at home, returned Tuesday to Oberlin college, where she will continue her musical studies.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Smith, who have been visiting Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs.

Margetts.

Mrs. A. C. Ewing was the hostess at a luncheen in honor of her aunt, Mrs. Noal, Tuesday, at which covers were laid for fourteen.

Miss May Perkins, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. Fred H. Perkins, Gr. P. Holman gave an informal

Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. Jeanette Sharp Ferguson and family returned during the week from Silver Lake, where they remained till the last of the summer.

Mr. John Murphy, who has been spending some time in town as the guest of Dr. Samuel Paul, will leave

She will spend the winter visiting friends in Kansas City, St. Joseph and oulton. The guests present were: Hattie Castleton, Miss Ethel Hawkes, Mrs. Albert Taylor, who has spent the past few months as the guest of Mrs. Egbert Roberts, will remain in the city another month before returning to her home in Indianancia.

Mr. A. J. Bettles and daughter, Charlotte, left yesterday for Los Angeles. Miss Bettles will enter the Collegiate school there and Mrs. Bettles will remain for a brief visit on the

Miss Allie Miller will return early in October from a summer spent at va-rious coast points. She will be accom-panied by Miss Inez Trent, who will be her guest for some weeks during

The marriage of Miss Sigrid Erickson and Mr. Percy W. Saville will be solemized next Tuesday. Mrs. R. H. Doolan, her son Robert and her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Abbott, left for Los Angeles last Tuesday. A very pleasant reception was given Thursday evening at Gordon academy for the opening of the new hall. A

The local Typographical union will give a reception tomorrow evening at the Ladies' Literary club house, in honor of the president and secretary of the International Typographical union.

The party given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kahn last Thursday evening at the Ladies' Literary club was a great success in every particular, and was thoroughly enjoyed by a large number of their friends.

♦ ♦ ♦
The Singing society "Harmonie" will selebrate the dedication of their new hall, 325 South State street, next Tues-day with a grand concert and ball. Many invitations have been given out, and a large number of tickets sold, so that a large attendance is expected.

The marriage of Mr. Frank Vincent and Miss Stella Snowball, Gaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Snowball of this and Miss Steila Showball of this city, was solemnized at noon on Wednesday at the Salt Lake temple. Atter the wedding a very pretty reception was given at the residence of the bride's parents, 34 K street. Mr. and Mrs. Vincent will be at home, 644 East Third South, after Sept. 25.

The Stag club had a pleasant outing yesterday in the form of a straw ride to Wood's Cross, where they enjoyed all the pleasures of farm life, and feasted on watermelons. Those who enjoyed the trip were: Bee Buckle, Ruble Williams, Ethel Gray, Kate Calder, Flos Negley, Edith Stanton, Miss Young, and Messrs. Bishop, O'Connor, Chapman, Mulvey, Corless and Foster. Chapman, Mulvey, Corless and Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Wright enter-tained at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Smith and their daughter, Miss Josephine, of Los Angeles. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Callahan, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clinton, Mrs. S. B. Newman, Mrs. Emma Clinton, Miss Josephine Smith, Miss Mertie Clinton, Miss Maude Wright, Mr. Charles Conner, Clinton Newman, Claude Callahan.

Took in the town and suburbs on a hay rack. Those who enjoyed the ride were Misses Helen Whitney, Theresa Taylor. Bessie Felt, Nellie Bowring, Jozle Larson, Nan Cahoon, Belva Fisher, Tillie Larson; Messrs. Ripley Johnson, Harry Ball, Bert Angell, Jule McMurrin, Jay Johnson, Will McGillivray, Joe Everett, Will Ball, Rufus Johnson Wrs. W. V. Hardle of Prove is seend.

A surprise was given in honor of Miss Hazel Ethel Hawkes at her home omorrow for his home in Philadelphia. Mrs. Louise Smedley Smith will leave early in the month for the east. Thursday evening. Some musical numbers were rendered by Miss Le-nora Van Dyke and Master Walter

A very delightful porch party was given Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Minerva Morris. Chinese lanterns and sunflowers produced a very pleasing effect. Those who enjoyed the evening were: Misses Mayme Veri, Ethel Gray, Pearl Peterson, Carrie Dunnion, Flora Moore, Clara Howard, Marie Tuckfield, Effie Dahlstead, Josie Bottleson, Jennie Ormstead, Tene Mrs. George A. Snow and daughter, Luvera, and son, Russell, will be with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Grant at 164 Sixth East street till about the middle of the East when they will leave for New Claylon, Marks, Jones, Strom and Claylon, Marks, Jones, Strom and

A most delightful affair was the kitchen shower given last Monday by Miss Emma Thornburg in honor of Miss May Margetts. The house was beautifully decorated in pink and white carnations. Refreshments were served, followed by a musical programme. The guests were: Miss Emma Thornburg, May Margetts, Lottie Griggs, Vernie Young. Florence Scholes, Melissa Smith, Carrie Richards, Nora Thornburg, Annie Soren-son, Marie Jonasson, Ella Thornburg, Hattie Carter, Clara Young, Margaret Thornburg, Jennie Mortenson, Hattie A very pleasant reception was given Thursday evening at Gordon academy for the opening of the new hall. A large number of the friends and patrons of the school were present, W. Sorensen, Mrs. Mulhall.

On Friday Mr. Harry Shafer and Miss Rose Shafer celebrated their twenty-first and sixteenth birthdays party to a number of friends. The house was prettily decorated with flowers, and each lady received a bouquet of asters and marguerites as a souvenir. An elaborate supper was served, at which appropriate toasts were proposed. Present were: Misses Fowler, Carter, Parsons, Nellie Nicholson, Nellie Bow ring, Blanche Allen, Cora Snow, Hazel Allen, Myrtle Robinson, Edna Brown, Hortense Schoenfeldt, Ella Myers, Ethel Stewart, Loule Moyle, Luella Stewart; Messrs, Colley Stayner, Harry Ball, Leslie Spence, Rufus Johnson, Will McGillivray, Tom Jackson, Clyde Bailey, James B. Cowan, Alex Faddiz, Joe Held, Percy Patterson, Will Ball, Ripley Johnson, Shafer, Ora Nelson.

Thomas Kearns came up to the Park Wednesday on business.

Colonel and Mrs. Holmes and daugh ters came up to the Park Wednesday to attend the ball given that night.

Professor Younger gave his usual Tuesday night social dance.

Bert Pape was in the Park Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Lenvill and two children of Bingham are visiting with Mrs. William Kneal of this city. Bismarck Snyder came up to the Park Friday on business. Mrs. Rice Williams and family returned to the Park Monday.

Mr. Sam Rodgers of Bingham was in the Park Tuesday.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Stringer celebrated their twenty-first → → → wedding aniversary. The evening was On Tuesday night a jolly party, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Haas, ent were the Misses Mortenson, Kneale

Mrs. W. V. Hardie of Provo is spending a few days in the Park, the guest of Mrs. Charles Shields.

bard, Lockhart, Wallace, Frankel, Lamb, Armstrong, Blocher and Bird. arence The evening was spent in cards Shade, dancing. Those present were Eliza Misses Holmes, Agnes Towey, J. Burlin, Minnie Cunningham, Clawson, Coffle, Bates, Stillman, Thorpe, Pearson, Gray, Bain, Carrle Sutton, Bessie Wilson, Cora Sutton, Minnie Kescel, Lambert and Cora Snyder, and the Mesdames Holmes, Kearns, McLaughlin, Sherman, Gelger, Hughes, Denzi, Buck, Towey, Town-send, Jennings, Rice, Donoher, Heath, Diem, Sherman, Le Compte, Drake, Es-selstyne, Daily, Thiriot, Petit, Hof-finan, McLaughlin, Steele, McPherson, McCarthy, Shields, Cushing, Southwell, Streeter, Hurlbut, Smith, Raddon, Kimball, Sutton, Thompson, Meton, McCalpine, Harding, Leane, James Kesiel, Davis and Boyd; Messrs. Holmes, Kearns, Keith, McLaughlin, Sherman, Geiger, Hughes, Lenzi, Buck, Towey, Townsend, Roy Hughes, Rice, Donoher, Diem, Sherman, Le Compte, Drake, Westfield, Fisher, Esselstyne, Daily, Frank Daily, Petit, Hoffman, Mc-Laughlin, Jim Don, Wight, Steele, Mc-Pherson, McCarty, Enos, Ward, Howel, Sam Raddon, Middour, Will Raddon, Smith, Kimball, Thompson, Quinn, Canters, Hampden, Malia, Coal-bath, Peterson, Shields, Dan Shields, Birch, Fleming, Kescel and Davis.

EUREKA.

Mr. M. E. Price was in Eureka the O'Connell.

her brother, Mr. John Rowe, of the Electric Light company's staff.

Mrs. J. H. McChrystal returned Tues-day evening from Salt Lake, where she spent a month with relatives.

Mr. John Nugent returned Monday from a week's visit in Salt Lake,

Mr. Will Mannheart came back Sunday from a month's visit in Evanston,

The Misses Winnie and Lena Welby, who were the guests of Mrs. Phil Clark, returned Wednesday to Salt Lake.

Mrs. Ivy Plummer, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Higson, went to her home in Salt Lake Friday.

Mrs. Jesse Ferguson was down from Park City Wednesday. Miss Lydia Robbins of Salt Lake spent the week with her sister, Mrs. J. H. McChrystal.

Mrs. Petry Fuller of Provo spent the week with Mr. Fuller at the home of W. A. McCuliough in Knightsville.

Mr. Jesse Knight of Provo, who has recently returned from Alberta, Can.,

was in Eureka Friday.

Mr. Jackson McChrystal spent several days of this week with his family in Salt Lake.

City Attorney Holzheimer has gone to his old home in Michigan for two weeks of rest and recreation.

Messrs. D. B. Cronin, A. M. Bowen, Joe Phillips, Nick Comes, Joe Hannifin and A. J. McPhee were at Prova Tuesday. Mr. I. J. Bernard was elected secre-tary of Tintic lodge of Elks Thursday night, to fill the vacancy caused by the

Fall Suits 1902.

for the fall and winter are now ready for your inspection. The up-to-dateness of the firm of Hart, Schaffner & Marx is emphasized this fall more than usual. Improvements have been made where improvements were possible; the clothing is strictly tailored-by-hand, thus giving that style and individuality so dear to particular dressers. Our clothing is not the ordinary kind-those who have worn our clothing know this-but the style, fabrics and staying qualities can be obtained only from the most expensive made-to-or-$15.00 to $25.00.

Prices of such suits as is pic-

RICHARDSON & ADAMS, 172 MAIN STREET.

THF TFRRIBIF T

A Sweeping Challenge.

MORALAH, "The Terrible Turk, No. 2," issues a challenge to wrestle anybody in the world, and is willing to take up any five wrestlers and throw them all in one hour actual wrestling time. This is no Hali Adali. He is a Turk and a wrestler in all respects, has met and defeated the world's greatest wrestlers in Europe and America; he is intelligent and has made some study of English and likes this country and its government and he may make the United States his future home. Moralah will appear at the

STATE FAIR

and during his engagement will wrestle all comers, agreeing to throw anybody in 15 minutes or forfeit a chunk of money. This will give an opportunity for some local strong men to try the Turk's ability, and when through with him they will agree with me that he is one of the best in the world. The Fair Committee has engaged the Turk at an enormous salary to give the lovers of sport an exhibition which they cannot see in every-

M. Charlson, Turk's Manager.

Utah State Fair.